PREVIOUS HIGHLIGHTS

OPPORTUNITIES

There are opportunities for sponsor booths, mobile sponsor bars, signage and participation in the auction.

UNIQUENESS

At the event there will be lots of dogs and puppies to pet, great food and drinks, live music and of course our amazing silent auction.

The

Justice Fund

Justice was a puppy who was doused with lighter fluid and set on fire by four men in 2011. DFW Rescue Me tried to save this puppy's life, but despite all the efforts, he succumbed to his injuries.

His Legacy

Justice's case became the first animal cruelty prosecution in Dallas, paving the way for future cases to be pursued.

Justice Fund

Created in his honor, the Justice Fund helps dogs who have suffered abuse or neglect.

Our Impact

Since its creation, the Justice Fund has covered medical expenses for more than 200 dogs, giving them a real chance to heal and find loving homes.

The Numbers Tell A Hard Truth

6X THE NATIONAL AVERAGE

According to veterinarians.org Texas has 6X the national average of animal cruelty offenses.

142% CAPACITY

At 142% capacity, Dallas Animal Services is overwhelmed and overcrowded. Overcrowded shelters rely on rescue groups like DFW Rescue Me to take in abused and neglected dogs they can't support.

As of September 1,

88 DOGS

in Dallas are believed to be victims of cruelty, each one needing urgent care and safety.

Meet The Justice Fund Beneficiaries

BRADY JUSTICE

Brady Justice came into the shelter at 72 pounds, unable to walk on his own. His condition was the result of prolonged neglect, and because his care required monitoring and resources beyond what the shelter could provide, he was scheduled for euthanasia. The Justice Fund made it possible for us to provide the careful, hands-on care he needed. Today, Brady is down to 50 pounds and can be found racing around the yard and playing with other dogs.

DAWN JUSTICE

Dawn, a 5 year old Cane Corso, had been living in a hotel with her owners. When the man became physical with the woman, Dawn tried to protect her. The man put Dawn in a crate, finished abusing the woman and proceeded to stab Dawn 31 times, puncturing her lung. The man let Dawn out to go wander away and die. A Good Samaritan found Dawn, lying bleeding on the ground. The Justice Fund was used to rehabilitate this gentle giant.

Meet The Justice Fund Beneficiaries

ELLIE JUSTICE

Ellie Justice was found by a good Samaritan after suffering from severe neglect, her body hidden beneath a tightly matted coat of hair. Once we were able to shave her down, we discovered badly irritated skin that required medical treatment. Through care made possible by the Justice Fund, Ellie's skin healed and her coat grew back, revealing the dog she was always meant to be.

TILLY JUSTICE

Tilly Justice was found on the side of the road after being hit by a car, lying beside a companion who did not survive. Despite being alone, frightened and suffering from a severely mangled back leg, she wagged her tail the moment she was safely in our volunteer's care. The Justice Fund made it possible for Tilly to receive emergency hospitalization and surgery to amputate her injured leg. Today, she is recovering in a foster home and beginning a new life she almost didn't get.
